RAY BOOTH™

With an undimmed passion and desire for beauty, Ray Booth approaches design from a place of reverence, marrying ideas from the past with the present to create evocative interiors. In his debut collection for Arteriors, Ray blends antique styles with modern silhouettes, pairing ceramic, steel and iron with clean lines and sculptural forms. A seeker at his core, Ray draws inspiration in the extraordinary and the every day, finding muses in the Far East, nature and architecture to compose a rich narrative rooted in balance.

IN MY WORK, I strive to blur
 the lines between old and new.

The conversation that is established between ancient and modern form synthesizes into something altogether new.

THE MATERIALS

I select come from some of my earliest memories...Steel combined with wood and other materials harken back to my father, an engineer.

The exposed connections of some of my designs are a celebration of the combined pieces and parts.
